

Name Match

Match the person's description with the right name.

1. It was my house that the British occupied during the Battle of Germantown.

General William Howe

2. I was enslaved to Benjamin Chew but escaped to fight for the British during the American Revolution.

General George Washington

3. I commanded the American troops during the Revolution.

Benjamin Chew

4. My dog was lost during the Battle of Germantown, but General Washington returned him to me.

Will

★ Did you know? The images on this page are called silhouettes.

Silhouettes are an outline of a person's profile and were a less expensive option for portraits prior to photography. We have silhouettes of other people who lived or worked at Cliveden in our Carriage House.