

Cliveden Resources and Bibliography

Updated 11/15/02

Introduction

The following list has three parts:

Part I lists archival and other collections—many of them very large—that tell a part of the Cliveden story.

Part II lists the various research tools and resources available at Cliveden. These include reports from numerous research projects undertaken since the site was given to the National Trust in 1972, many of them in computer-readable form.

Part III is an extensive bibliography of works about Cliveden or the people who lived there. Because these publications are numerous, they have been divided into categories such as “Architecture” or “Tour Guides.” There are undoubtedly many omissions, but additional items will be added as they come to our attention, in the hope that the list will one day be comprehensive.

Part I: Collections

Primary source materials at Cliveden

Chew family library

Legal library contains approximately 200 items dating from 1627 to the late eighteenth century. General library includes later legal titles plus 800 general interest titles from the eighteenth, nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Alphabetical author listing and shelf list available.

Chew family papers

40+ linear feet of standard legal document boxes plus four large map cases of containing oversize materials. Item level finding aid available. Consists primarily of Chew family papers and photographs found in house after the bulk of collection was transferred to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania in 1972.

Object collections

Approximately 3,000 objects dating from the mid-eighteenth century to 1972. Bulk of collection consists of furniture and other decorative arts materials, textiles, paintings and graphics. Individual files available for each object, including catalog worksheets, photographs, conservator’s reports and supporting records as available.

Architectural fragments

One hundred forty complete or partial original Cliveden architectural elements, removed for safe storage or replacement. Includes interior wood trim, shutters, doors, stairs, iron work and other items, most of them large.

Archaeological materials

More than twenty containers containing thousands of fragments. See reports, below for location and interpretive information.

Curatorial files

45.5 linear feet. Arranged by subject, including Cliveden history, biographical files, genealogy, Battle of Germantown, architectural and landscape records.

Institutional archives

Approximately 65 linear feet of administrative records dating from 1972 to the mid 1990s. Box-level finding aid.

Slide collection

Approximately three thousand 35mm color transparencies of Cliveden exteriors, interiors, collections and nearby historical sites, dating from 1959 to the present.
