PRESERVING AND ADAPTING THEIR WORLD: THE WOMEN OF CLIVEDEN

M from 10:00 AM to 12 PM

TW20. Built in 1767 as a summer home to the Chew family, Cliveden was the site of the Revolutionary War Battle of Germantown in 1777 and explores the lives of the Chew family and their workers, both the enslaved and servants, from the 1760s until the 1970s. The tour will explore Cliveden's current exhibition, Preserving and Adapting their World: The Women of Cliveden with Education Director Carolyn Wallace. Learn about how the exhibit was developed and have the opportunity to see objects from Cliveden's textile collections not currently on view.

Carolyn Wallace is an educator, program coordinator and collections manager with a background in historic sites. In her current role as Education Director for Cliveden of the National Trust. She is focused on education, interpretation and collections.

SEEDS TO LIVE BY: FALL/WINTER GARDENING

Sa from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM

FH06. Discover new techniques for extending the life of the plants in your vegetable garden to keep them producing even through the harshest of winters. You can winterize your existing plants so that they stay vibrant through the cold months or bring the plants from your garden inside to "winter over." Imagine picking tomatoes and peppers in the middle of January! We will also plant fall and winter crops that can be harvested well into December as well as a variety of crops that won't be ready until the spring. Of course, whatever you plant during the class is yours to take home.

Ellen Russell

October 23 | $35.00
